Consent form for (Write student name on each sheet) :

- Students with special dietary or medical problems are accepted solely at the discretion of CES. There is a supplementary charge for coeliac, vegetarians, vegans and students with special dietary requirements. Parents must complete in full and return this consent form to CES in the UK before any booking can be considered confirmed.
- CES cannot accept students with enuresis (bed-wetting).
- In the peak months of July and August CES reserve the right to place two CES students of the same mother tongue in the same homestay accommodation. CES will do everything reasonably possible to meet agents' accommodation requests. Whilst CES cannot guarantee that our homestays will not take students from another source, CES will nevertheless use its best endeavours to ensure that the homestay accommodation is suitable to student requirements.
- Students are expected to follow school rules and failure to do so may result in your son or daughter being sent home at your expense. This will be at the discretion of CES UK.
- Students who are 18 years and over must attend a CES adult course. CES does not accept students 18 years and over in junior Courses. We reserve the right to refuse such bookings.
- CES reserves the right to charge a student £50 for an unnecessary change of host family.
- All students are expected to bring a towel and toiletries with them
- Important: Students must follow school rules. Students taking drugs will be sent home immediately at the expense of the parents. Students under the age of 18 are not permitted to drink alcohol. There will be no refund of fees for such students. Agents will be advised of the expulsion and must make arrangements for their student(s) to return home immediately.
- Junior students must follow rules regarding supervision and curfew times, as written in handbooks and supervision notes for parents
- CES has a strict anti-bully policy regarding all forms of social media. Any student found breaking this rule can be sent home
- Failure to disclose medical information, information about medicines that need to be taken, or failure to complete the CES consent form may result in your son or daughter being sent home at your own expense.
- Failure to sign and return this form when asked to do so may result in problems with
